

Homicide: The Game

Presents

Painseeker

"The 10 Questions"

Answers from Sergei Brosovsky

1 - What do you do for a living?

I worked as a janitor at Terror Trax until Raychel died.

2 - How did you know Raychel?

I saw her a lot when she and the others were there.

3 - When did you first meet Raychel?

In March of 2000 after Raychel and the others came to the studio.

4 - What one word best describes Raychel for you and why?

Nice. She was nice to me for a talented person.

5 - What one thing would you have changed about Raychel and why?

I wish she told Mr. MacIntyre about recording again so I did not have to lie to him and he wouldn't have been as angry at me as he was.

6 - How did Raychel affect your life?

I had to quit Terror Trax because of my helping Raychel. Mr. Kincaid was nice to get me a new job though.

7 - How did you affect Raychel's life?

I cleaned it. I also hope the times we talked about her music helped her when she had to argue with Mr. MacIntyre and Kyle McAllister about it.

8 - What is your best memory of Raychel?

When she played No More Dreams No More for me alone. Everyone left before. But she came back without Sharon and played the song for me. She was very proud of it. I was happy she thought of me enough to let me hear it. Now no one will hear it.

9 - What would you do or say if you could bring Raychel back?

I would like the chance to record with her.

10 - Who do you feel is most responsible for Raychel's passing?

I saw Raychel a lot without Sharon Wolfe. If she was so good a bodyguard how was Raychel able to get away from her so often?